

STILL HAS FAITH IN DR. FLOWER

Mrs. Storrs, Who Lost $323,000 Through Him, Believes He Will Come Out of His Difficulties All Right.

WILL PAY BAIL BOND, BUT WON'T PROSECUTE.

Old Lady Speaks Pleasantly of Her Loss and Is Confident Flower Investments Are Still Good Ones.

Mrs. Cornelia Storrs, widow of the former Deputy Comptroller, who has lost $323,000 through her faith in Dr. Richard C. Flower, the mining promoter who is now declared to be a fugitive from justice, declares that she still has faith in the physician. Mrs. Storrs will be made to pay $23,000, the amount of the bond she gave for his appearance. In addition she has lost $300,000 through his mining ventures. Mrs. Storrs is now at Salem, N. Y., and she laughed lightly when she told how she had lost a fortune through Flower, but how she still has faith in him and will trust him for more money if necessary. Mrs. Storrs is seventy-four years old, silver-haired, but her eyes are bright and she does not look her age. She admitted that she was surprised at his disappearance, but she did not seem to regret the $23,000 which she must now forfeit because she went to bail.

"Let them say what they will," she said, smiling. "I have confidence in Dr. Flower. I know him well. Seven years ago he saved my life when I was suffering with several complaints. Rheumatism and heart trouble were the most serious."

Did Not Hypnotize Her.
"I deny that he hypnotized me. It was his medicine that did me good. Do I look like a woman who can be hypnotized? I am grateful to him, and when the trouble came to him I showed my appreciation of his friendship and his advice."

Mrs. Storrs then talked of the money she had invested through Flower. "I do not care to say," she said, laughing. "It might have been $100,000. It might have been $300,000. Surely it was not that much."

And for the first time she became thoughtful and the smile left her face. Mrs. Storrs is confident that the money she has invested through Dr. Flower will bring her returns.

"That $23,000 additional does not worry me in the least," she continued. "The last time I saw Dr. Flower was

MORRIS MURPHY DEAD.

East Side Character a Lifelong Friend of Tammany Leader.

Morris Murphy, of the Eighteenth Assembly District, who was an east side character, is dead.

Murphy and the present leader of Tammany Hall were lifelong friends, and played ball together on the famous team which Charles Murphy managed. When the Anawanda Club of the district was started Morris Murphy became one of the charter members, and retained his membership up to the time of his death. His boon companions were "Jim" Gaffney, the Alderman of the district, and "Jack" Murphy, brother of the leader.

The dead man, who was known to every man, woman and child in the district, was a foreman in the Department of Highways and prominent in the Holy Name Society.

GAS KILLED THREE MEN.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 25.—While digging a well at Springdale today four laborers were overcome by gas. All were unconscious when taken out, and three died later. The fourth is in a critical condition.

SEEKERS IN BOAT FIND DEAD CHILD

Young Couple Row Up and Down the North River Endeavoring to Recover Body of Their Little Boy.

The body of six-year-old Joseph Brown was found this afternoon by the searchers in the North River off Fifth street, near where the boy is said to have been seen to go down. The father, exhausted from his all-night vigil, had gone home and to bed when the little form was taken from the water and carried to the police station, but he was awakened and identified it as that of his boy. The police attribute the death to accident. Young Joseph left his parents' home, No. 672 Eleventh avenue, in company with August Kiernan, six years old, of No. 672 Eleventh avenue, and William St. John, six, of No. 524 West Forty-ninth street, and went to the recreation pier at the foot of West Fifth street. Tiring of romping about the pier the three children found their way to a dock alongside, and there Joseph discovered a place where the water came up so that he could wade in it. He walked out until the water was up to his waist and then stopped. "You'd better come back!" called his companions. "I ain't skeered," replied the venturesome Joseph. "I'll show you how to swim."

Laughing, the boy waded further into the water, and suddenly his little legs were carried from under him by a wave and he sank.

Badly frightened, August and William fled to their homes. As August passed the Brown home he ran in and yelled: "Joe's drowned! You mustn't blame me."

The father and mother hurried to the recreation pier. It was true. Their boy was drowned and his body had not been recovered. So the father and mother began a search for the body, which lasted all night.

FOOTBALL CAPTAIN FINED.

Head of Columbia Pays for Speeding His Auto.

Under the name of Duncan H. Brown, of No. 31 East Thirty-fifth street, a man was arrested last night by Bicycle Policeman McCormick on a charge of going faster in his auto than fifteen miles an hour.

When he was arraigned before Magistrate Mayo in the West Side Court today Brown said he had nothing to say against the charge and a fine of $10 was imposed and paid.

It was afterward learned that "Brown" was Duncan C. Tok, the captain of the Columbia football team, and that the friend who was with him was Capt. Weaver, of the Columbia baseball team.

WILLIAM A. SNOWDON.

"COMMON SENSE"

Better Than Doctors.

THOMAS A. EDISON, the inventor, in mapping out the problems of the future, gives first place to the necessity of fighting the bacteria which give us our diseases. Next to the actual bacteria of disease, the mosquitoes and flies are the most dangerous enemies of man. The mosquito with its bite injects into our veins malaria, yellow fever and other fatal troubles. The fly, with its spongy feet, collects the invisible germs of disease, spreads them over our food and poisons us with typhoid, cholera and other plagues of the human race. The bacteria of disease we can see only through microscopes. These little organisms can point to victories by the million, which lie in such numbers in our cemeteries. Thus far scientists have not been able to fight these bacteria very well. The best thing we can possibly do individually at present is to keep ourselves in such a state of health as will enable us to fight the bacteria with our own vitality.

GOOD, RED BLOOD OUR AMMUNITION. The blood which flows through our veins and arteries should contain healthy red blood corpuscles which are capable of warding off the attack of disease germs if they get into the system. While we keep our blood in good condition and our little army of fighters in order we can resist fairly well the attacks from the outside. In preparing ourselves against bacterial attacks there are many important things to be thought of—proper nourishment of the blood, nerves, lungs, heart and liver. Important to us is proper food for the stomach, pure air for the lungs, exercise and cleanliness at all times. Good wholesome air taken into the lungs helps oxidize the blood and make it strong. Sunlight is also important for our well being. If our stomach is "out of whack," if the blood does not get the proper nutriment out of the food eaten, we at once weaken our defensive forces and the germs of catarrh, consumption or grip readily enter.

Dr. Pierce, the eminent physician of Buffalo, N. Y., says, "If each person will consider his system as an army of men which he controls as a general, and will see to its proper provisioning and that it has plenty of ammunition in the shape of good, red blood, he will be able to overcome the enemy in the shape of the germs of disease." Every healthy person has five million red blood cells or corpuscles to every cubic millimeter of blood. The number of red blood corpuscles in the average human being is so great that it is almost incomprehensible. However, their numbers increase with health or decrease with illness or malnutrition. The best tonic for increasing the red blood corpuscles and building up healthy tissue is no doubt Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This medicine has been on the market for over a third of a century and numbers its cures by the thousand. A tonic made up largely of alcohol will shrink the corpuscles of the blood and make them weaker for resistance. A cod liver oil makes the stomach groan because it is irritating. What is needed is an alternative extract made of roots and herbs, without the use of alcohol, that will assist the stomach in assimilating or taking up from the food such elements as are required for the blood, also an alternative that will assist the activity of the liver and cause it to throw off the poisons in the blood. When we have accomplished this we have put the system in a fortified condition so strong that it can repel the germs of disease which we find everywhere—in the streets, the shops, the factories, the bedrooms, wherever many people congregate, or where sunlight and good air do not penetrate.

Along with its use one should take exercise in the open outdoor air, get all one can of God's sunlight and air, and practice a mild breathing exercise each day. This "Medical Discovery" gives no false stimulation, because it does not contain alcohol or a narcotic. It helps digestion and the assimilation of such elements in the food as are required for the blood instead of a cod liver oil, against which the already sensitive stomach will declare open rebellion, this tonic has a pacifying action upon the sensitive stomach and gives to the blood the food elements the tissues require. It maintains nutrition by enabling one to eat, retain, digest and assimilate nutritious food.

"I have decided from experience that no doctor or medicine can help one so much as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes William A. Snowdon of Portland Light Infantry, Uniformed Rank—Knights of Pythias, 5424 Congress Street (Suite 31), Portland, Maine. "It is simply a wonderful remedy. I was fairly given up by the doctors two years ago with lung trouble. Had to cough for about two hours every morning and frequently during the day. My lungs were sore and inflamed and nothing seemed to aid them but your blessed remedy. It soon relieved the cough, strengthened my entire system, and in five months I was restored to perfect health. Thanks seem but a slight return for all the good your medicine has done for me. I certainly wish you good luck and continued success."

THE BEST GUIDE.

If women want to know how to take care of their health they should always have in the household "The Common Sense Medical Advice," a book written by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. You will find valuable information concerning the organs and functions of the body, prevention of sickness, simple home cures, as well as a careful honest discussion of the great problems of marriage and maternity. Dr. Pierce writes in this book free to all who ask. Send thirty-one cents to one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing the cloth-covered volume.
